

Covid-19 Waiver

In light of the novel coronavirus outbreak (Covid-19) which has affected millions of lives throughout the world, and in light of the absence of and/or the difficulty in gaining access to regular testing, a vaccine, or cure, the undersigned agrees that the operation of this salon, Jennifer & Co., presents various health risks to its workers and patrons. And so the following waiver is understood and agreed to by the undersigned, in exchange for the opportunity to remain upon or within the premises of and/or receive services from Jennifer & Co.'s owners, managers, and all other employees (check each box):

- I agree there are health risks at this location, such as the possibility of contracting Covid-19;
- I understand I may have the right to hire a lawyer and sue for damages caused by, including but not limited to, the negligence of Jennifer & Co. and/or its owners, managers, or all other employees with respect to hidden or obvious risks of physical harm that might exist upon these premises;
- I waive any and all legal claims of every kind that I could bring against Jennifer & Co., it's owners, managers, and all other employees with respect to any and all damages, harms, or losses caused by or related to the novel coronavirus (Covid-19).
- Any action brought by me regarding the subject of this waiver, or the waiver itself, is agreed to be subject to binding arbitration according to the rules of the American Arbitration Association®, and venue for such dispute shall be exclusively within Lake County Ohio, and shall apply Ohio law. No other prior or contemporaneous oral or written statements or representations of any kind are made a part of this waiver.
